TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice. The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. Some false prophets were extremely popular and quite well-versed in scripture, and even held positions of authority. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. Elsewhere, we also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. Today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

Praying the Rosary cont'd-- Part 3 (series of 4)

In contemplation, the person praying sees the mysteries pass before his eyes, and at the same time he abides in particular affections or movements of the heart before God. The one who prays sings the song of his own life, in which naturally there can arise specific desires: You wanted to be the son of a human Mother, help my sick Mother! You were crowned with thorns; help me in this financial difficulty which I can't get out of my head. You sent the Holy Spirit; without You I don't have the courage or the strength to make a good decision. With this understanding, the following tips can help those who pray the Rosary move from vocal prayer to meditation and to inner contemplation:

Schedule the time

Our schedule is full of appointments. More or less consciously, we also plan out the time we're going to need for each task or appointment. Sometimes it is good to set aside 20 or 30 minutes to pray the Rosary, and write down the schedule. This "appointment" with Jesus and Mary is then just as important as all other ones planned. For all of us, it is possible to set aside a time to pray the Rosary, at first, once, twice or three times a week. Over time—and this is the goal—it will be easier to find time to pray the Rosary daily.

Don't rush

We can learn a lesson about prayer by observing people in love. During a romantic candlelit dinner, no one would be constantly looking at the clock, or choking down their food, or leaving the dessert to one side to finish as quickly as possible. Rather, a romantic meal is stretched out, maybe lingering for an hour to sip a cocktail, and enjoying every moment spent together. So it is with praying the Rosary. It shouldn't be treated as sets of Hail Mary's to be performed as if one were lifting weights. I can spend time lingering on a thought. I can also break away from it. I can, principally at the beginning, simply be peaceful. If I keep this peaceful attitude and an awareness of how important this 20-minute "appointment" is, then I will have prayed well. It will have been a good prayer, because my will is focused on pleasing the Beloved and not myself.

Savor the experience

Saint Ignatius recommends what's called the "third form of prayer," which consists in adjusting the words to the rhythm of one's own breathing. Often it is sufficient in praying the Rosary to briefly pause between the mysteries, and remember that Jesus and Mary are looking at me full of joy and love, recognizing with gratitude that I am like a little child babbling words every so often to in some way affirm that I love God. To do this, it can be useful to pause and take a few breaths before resuming vocal prayer.

Catholic Schools Week
January 28 – February 3, 2018

Come celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2018 at all Masses on January 27-28. This year's theme is "Catholic Schools:

Believe. Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed."

Students from our parish school, All Saints Catholic School, will participate in all Masses and express their gratitude for your continued support. This is also the official start to the school's Annual Giving Campaign.

Our 2018 Annual Giving Campaign goals include:

- capital improvements to enhance the physical environment within which our students learn and grow bridging the gap between what is charged for tuition ($6100) and the actual cost of educating our students ($8300).

Your gift demonstrates a genuine commitment to challenge our students to succeed, lead and serve. Your financial support directly affects every student at All Saints. Your generous contribution helps us offer a Catholic education to all who desire it for their children.

CTM

Interested in participating in CTM, the St. Mary's youth group? The youth group is open to grades 7-12 and offers service opportunities and fun activities like ice skating and trips to Six Flags and the movies. Contact Dave and Ale Keegan at stmarysctm@gmail.com to be added to our email list.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus went up on a mountain to teach his disciples important things.
Find your way up the mountain by coloring the numbers that count from one to twenty.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Do you consider yourself a naturally caring, compassionate and giving person? If so, come and share your gifts with people in need by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St. Mary of the Assumption Parish. Last year we made over 200 visits and served almost 500 persons. For more information, contact Alex Perella, Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference President, 302-388-4967 or alexandranp@yahoo.com.

Thank you for your support!
