Fifth Sunday of Easter

April 29, 2018

Let us love not in word or speech
but in deed and truth.

— 1 John 3:18

LIVING BRANCHES

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God's own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: "And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another" (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ's life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul's fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord's Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In medieval times, one country, Scotland, linked its economy to the liturgy. Four holy days of the church calendar were keyed to the legal year. On these days, rents were due, clergy and servants were paid, and contracts and leases would begin or end. The term days were Pentecost (called Whitsunday), the Feast of Saint Martin on November 11 (Martinmas), the Feast of the Presentation on February 2 (Candlemas), and August 2 (Lammas), a harvest festival. On Lammas day, the first loaf of bread from the summer wheat harvest was given to the village priest. After the Reformation, which swept the Catholic festivals away, the term days were gradually detached from the old feasts. It was only in 1990 that the term days were anchored on the 28th of February, May, August, and November. Today the old Scottish universities are the last hold-outs, still naming their terms or semesters after the old festivals. Scottish students today may not know about the liturgical year, but they still call the fall term Martinmas, and the spring session Candlemas.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The church was being built up, and grew in numbers (Acts 9:26-31).

Psalms — I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people (Psalm 22).

Second Reading — Let us love not in word or speech, but in deed and truth (1 John 3:18-24).

Gospel — Remain in me, as I remain in you. I am the vine, you are the branches (John 15:1-8).

Listen to Catholic Forum every Sunday morning at 10:05 a.m. on WDEL 101.7 FM, 1150 AM and www.wdel.com.

Anointing Mass

Each year, the fifth grade students from All Saints Catholic School pray for and write to those who are elderly and homebound in Corpus Christi, St. Mary of the Assumption, Saint Catherine of Siena, St. Matthew, and our Lady of Fatima parishes. This maintains a connection with parishioners who are not always able to join us for worship each week. Also, they have the pleasure of hosting a Mass during which the sick and elderly are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

All those who are sick or elderly are invited to our spring Anointing of the Sick Mass, which will take place on Friday, May 11, 2018 at 11:00 AM in Corpus Christi Church. The fifth grade students will be present to greet you, pray with you, and share refreshments following the Mass. Following refreshments, we will also be having our final Dancing Classrooms performance to showcase all of the dances that we have learned over the past four months. If you are able to join us and attend the Mass, please RSVP to All Saints Catholic school at 995-2231 between the hours of 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM.

The school is launching a new website on May 1st. The new website will assist current and future families in connecting with faculty and staff as well as advertising community-wide events and announcements! ASCS's next Open House will be during STREAM Night on May 8th! The band will perform at 5:30pm and Open House/STREAM Night will follow!
