PEOPLE OF THE COVENANT

If there is one word that stands out in today's readings, it is "covenant." God's faithfulness and goodness serve as examples to us of how to live. Genesis tells the story of Noah and of God's covenant not only with all people, but with all of nature. Never will the cleansing waters of the flood bring their destructive power to all the earth again. The sign, the reminder to both God and nature, is the rainbow in the heavens.

The psalm reminds us of this compassion of God, and begs God to remember us, not because of our goodness, but because of God's goodness and fidelity to the promise. God shows us how to be good, not by decree, but by example.

In your charity, please pray for all who have gone before us and all the deceased of St. Mary of the Assumption

Did you Know?

Beatitudes (Part 1 of 6 series)

The eight Beatitudes from the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount is a charter for holiness. When many people think of holiness they think of keeping the Ten Commandments and perhaps some other requirements of the Church like going to Mass on Sundays or fasting during Lent. What we often tend to forget is that the Ten Commandments really belong to the Old Testament and are part of the Jewish law. Of course, they are still valid and Jesus said clearly that he had not come to abolish the Jewish law but to fulfil it. We might say that the Beatitudes are an example of that fulfilling. The Beatitudes go far beyond the Ten Commandments in what they expect of a follower of Christ and yet the sad thing is that one hears of relatively few Christians saying that they base their lives on the Beatitudes. When we go to Confession it is the Ten Commandments we normally refer to and not the Beatitudes. And this is sad because it is clear from their position in Matthew's gospel that the Beatitudes have a central place. They are a kind of mission statement saying what kind of person the good Christian will be.

Dear Friends,

Please consider helping me fund my upcoming mission trip to Ecuador. For more information and to donate online, visit (www.franciscan.edu/missionsofpeace), choosing Ecuador Spring in the dropdown box. Anything you can send would be most gratefully received.

Thank you so much for your kindness and generosity. Please know that we shall indeed be praying for you on this mission. During our travels, we specifically mention our benefactors and friends at Mass. 8,860 POUNDS !!!

2018 Soup-er Bowl Food Drive Results... 8,860 pounds of food delivered to 13 different organizations as a result of your generous food and monetary donations. Saint Herman of Alaska, Orthodox Church in Gradyville, Pa and St Mary's EEP, PREP, and Boy Scouts contributed to this important effort as well. We would also like to thank the people that helped in the coordination of the donations, organization and delivery. Several of these people have helped for multiple years. They are: Jackie and Peggy Birney, Matt Sinko, Irene Rombel, Austin Chambers, Hunter Rinehart, Timothy Hunter, Amy and Ed Gootzait. New comers: Matt Holzapfel, Brandon Mitchell, Andrew Atkins, Mathew and Brody Farmer. Thank you to all of my Brother Knights of Columbus that worked so hard from start to finish to get this food to the 13 organizations. Pictures of the Souper Bowl Food Drive effort can be found at <http://www.kofcKnights.org/CouncilSite/photo-gallery.asp?ID=8900&CNO=6768>.

The organizations that received the food are: St Paul Outreach, Hockessin Community Center, House of Joseph, West End Neighborhood, Ministry of Caring Child Care Center, Sojourner's Place, Holy Spirit Church, Bayard House, Immaculate Conception of Elkton, Emmanuel Dining Room, Latin American Community Center, and Christ the King. St Patrick's food pantry in Wilmington was added this year.

I personally delivered food to two organizations, both expressed heartfelt gratitude. One person related that they have been working with 25 families, many of which were deciding how to spend money between rent, heat, water bills OR putting food on the table. What a choice to have to make!!

THANK YOU!!!

Ralph Paulus (Coordinator)

Participate in Catholic Charities semi-annual "Stock the Pantry" project throughout the month of February! One in five families often must choose between making a rent or utility payment and buying food. In a single month, Catholic Charities distributes approximately 15,000 pounds of food throughout the Diocese!

You can support our most vulnerable neighbors by making a donation of non-perishable food items. Drop off items like canned meats, soups, fruits, and vegetables; boxes of pasta, cereal, baking mixes; jars of peanut butter and jelly; coffee, tea, and powdered milk at any Catholic Charities location. Catholic Charities will also accept gift cards to local grocery stores or cash donations. You can find the nearest Catholic Charities service center at www.cdow.org/charities, or call 302-655-9624. Those in need of food assistance should call the nearest Catholic Charities location.
