O LORD, BE MY HELP

Today we encounter readings that draw us into the mystery of suffering and death. In the past few years we have witnessed the devastation of life and property through earthquakes and hurricanes. So many lifted their lament to God, simply asking, "Why?" This is an honest expression of anger toward a God who we believe is the giver of life. When we lose a loved one, we can wonder why the presence of Christ is not enough to make that person rise, even from death, as did the little girl in today's Gospel passage. Again we raise our voices and ask, "Why?" At moments such as these, let us make the prayer of the psalmist our own: "Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me; O LORD, be my helper." Let us pray that our mourning will one day be turned into dancing.

In your charity, please pray for all who have gone before us and all the deceased of
St. Mary of the Assumption

How to Fight the Devil - Part 2

Second: Arm yourself. Action movies say "Don't bring a knife to a gun fight." Francis says the same thing about our battle with the devil. "For this spiritual combat, we can count on the powerful weapons that the Lord has given us: faith-filled prayer, meditation on the word of God, the celebration of Mass, Eucharistic adoration, sacramental Reconciliation," he says. Only by living "in Christ" through the sacraments he gave us can we fortify ourselves. "If we become careless, the false promises of evil will easily seduce us," Francis warns. Third: Maximize good deeds — your own and others. Other weapons in your spiritual armory include "works of charity" and "missionary outreach," he adds. But Francis warns about prideful, self-congratulatory charity. "Rejoice in the good of others as if it were your own, and desire that they be given precedence over you in all things," he says, quoting St. John of the Cross. "This you should do wholeheartedly. You will thereby overcome evil with good, banish the devil, and possess a happy heart" (No. 117).

A NOTE FROM ST. MARY'S OUTREACH:

Outreach is reaching out to you and your families to offer several opportunities to help kids and families in need this summer. Many children and teens are without school lunch services during the summer. We see an increase (especially teens) seeking sandwiches at shelters over the summer months. You may choose a one time opportunity or multi-date. Our new website allows you to choose among different ministries and dates that fit your summer schedule. Volunteering to help others is a wonderful way to connect and be present with your family this summer. Most children 6 years or older enjoy making sandwiches with their family knowing each sandwich will feed someone without food the next day. Most preteen and teens enjoy making a meal for women and men in rehabilitation or in crisis knowing they are providing assistance to a person on the road to recovery. Each of these opportunities is a chance for you to open the doors to discussion of the underserved and in need neighbors that are present every day in our community. Please take time today to look at how your family can help this summer.

Here is the link to the different ways you can help https://smaoutreachministries.wixsite.com/help/get_involved or the church website- smachurch.com then click "join us" then "Community Outreach". Scroll down to see multiple areas where your assistance is needed. OR CONTACT: Leanne Renneisen 302-743-7122 or email Lrenneisen@comcast.net
