TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading —As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you (Isaiah 66:10-14c).

Psalms — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus sends out the seventy-two (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 [1-9]).

In your charity, please pray for all who have gone before us and all the deceased of St. Mary of the Assumption.

+Reynold (Reyn) Cierniak, husband of parishioner Rose Cierniak

+Pat Kennedy, mother of parishioner Katie Cooley

Did you Know?

Imitating Mary: How F. I. A. T. Spells Yes (Part 5 of 5)

T is for thanksgiving — the central attitude in Mary's own commentary on her "fiat." If all of this makes a "fiat" sound like drudgery, Mary's "Magnificat" prayer can correct that mistaken impression. By looking at each step of her fiat with gratitude, she fills the whole process with positive energy. Fortitude doesn't mean bracing oneself for unpleasantness; it means embracing God's goodness. Mary, using words from her encounter with the angel, describes it this way: "My soul magnifies the Lord, And my spirit rejoices in God my Savior. For He has regarded the low estate of His handmaiden, For behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed." Initiative isn't a high hurdle you have to clear to get started, it's the natural consequence of working with God. "For He who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His name," says Mary. "He has shown strength with His arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts." Acceptance doesn't mean white-knuckling through suffering. Mary sees it as freeing ourselves from shackles: "He has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree. He has filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He has sent empty away." Thanksgiving, in other words, changes the whole exercise for Mary. Her fiat is ours. Let it be done according to her way.

Catholic Charities taking application for energy assistance The Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), administered in Delaware by Catholic Charities, is now taking applications for the 2019-2020 heating season. You may be eligible for assistance if your total household income falls within income eligibility guidelines. For example, a household of 4 can have no more than $50,325 in annual household income (before taxes).

In order to qualify, you must make an appointment with a Catholic Charities office for a personal interview. Regular office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
