TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although our Puritan forebears at Plymouth Rock were almost a hundred years removed from their Catholic roots, the old liturgical calendar still had an unconscious claim on their hearts. We've already seen how on Saint Martin's Day, November 11, medieval continental Europe observed a great harvest day of Thanksgiving, with games, dances, parades, and a festive dinner of roast goose. With the goose went ample draughts of "Saint Martin's Wine," the first wine of the new harvest. Martinmas celebrated full barns and larders stocked for the winter. Even after the Reformation, the tradition of eating goose on Saint Martin's Day was retained in Holland, and it was there that our Pilgrims encountered this tradition. When Governor Bradford sent four hunters out into the Massachusetts wilderness in the autumn of 1621, they did indeed find some geese and ducks, and were persuaded by the indigenous people to try turkey, too.

Just as the liturgical calendar has been tweaked over the years, President Roosevelt moved Thanksgiving to the third Thursday in November in 1939, probably to extend the Christmas shopping season. The protest was so great that in 1941 the day established by President Lincoln, the last Thursday in November, was restored. If the Pilgrims had known of the Martinmas connection, they might never have celebrated at all!

MEN OF THE PARISH - STRENGTHEN YOUR FAITH WITH "MORNING BREW"

Join us as we present:
"The Church Abuse Crisis: A Dialogue"

The Men's Group will be hosting its quarterly Morning Brew session. Its purpose is to provide a short break from our busy lives, allow us to learn more about the Church's position on matters impacting our daily lives and offer the fellowship that can only be experienced with other Catholic men. This session is open to all men of the parish and will include some review of the history of the crisis and provide an opportunity to share views and positive ideas for moving forward. This half day of fellowship is scheduled for Saturday, December 1, beginning with Mass at 8:30 am (optional). The event itself will begin at 9:00 am (after mass) and will end at 12:30. It will be held in the Church Hall. Please register at Morning Brew page at smachurch.com/morningbrew or contact Jim Robinson at (302) 373-0265 or jprobinson98@gmail.com.

We hope you to see you there!

Universal Call to Holiness –Part 2

Before we go much further in our examination of the spiritual journey, let's take an initial look at what "holiness" really means. In the Book of Ephesians we read, "He chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him" (Eph 1:4). To be holy is not primarily a matter of how many Rosaries we say or how much Christian activity we're engaged in; it's a matter of having our heart transformed into a heart of love. It is a matter of fulfilling the great commandments which sum up the whole law and the prophets: to love God and our neighbor, wholeheartedly. Or as Teresa of Avila puts it, holiness is a matter of bringing our wills into union with God's will. Thérèse of Lisieux expresses it very similarly: "Perfection consists in doing His will, in being what He wills us to be . . . who resists His grace in nothing." As she said towards the very end of her life: "I do not desire to die more than to live; it is what He does that I love."

We all probably know in some way that we're called to holiness but perhaps struggle to respond. Feeling the challenge of the call and yet seeing the obstacles, it is easy to rationalize delaying or compromising and avoid a wholehearted and immediate response.
