Becoming Catholic

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

In Isaiah 43:1 God says: "I have called you by name, you are mine." The invitation to respond to God's call is extended to anyone who is interested in becoming Catholic or exploring Catholicism as a way of life.

At St. Mary's becoming Catholic is a process coordinated by a group of fully initiated Catholics who make up the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) team. The team includes lay people, deacons, and priests. This process may be for you:

- If you have not been baptized.
- Or you have been baptized in another faith.
- Or you have been baptized Catholic but have not completed full initiation into the Church through Confirmation and/or Eucharist.
- Maybe you attend Mass regularly but do not participate in full communion by reception of the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process established for the universal Church for individuals to become Catholic and receive the sacraments of initiation—Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. This initiation process also involves a parish community experiencing a renewal in faith as it prepares and welcomes new members into the Church.

We invite you to respond to God's call.

Did you Know?

CONFESSION

Even if you do not confess, God is not ignorant of the deed, since he knew it before it was committed. Why then do you not speak of it? Does the transgression become heavier by the confession? No, it becomes lighter and less troublesome. And this is why he wants you to confess: not that you should be punished, but that you should be forgiven; not that he may learn your sin—how could that be, since he has seen it?—but that you may learn what favor he bestows. He wishes you to learn the greatness of his grace, so that you may praise him perfectly, that you may be slower to sin, that you may be quicker to virtue. And if you do not confess the greatness of the need, you will not understand the enormous magnitude of his grace.

— St. John Chrysostom, p. 255

Knights of Columbus: COATS FOR KIDS

The Knights of Columbus are helping to bring some warmth to children in need during the cold Winter months. Our goal this year is to distribute 100 coats through the St. Mary's Outreach program. The Coffee Run Council has allocated $1000 of its funds to provide about half of the need, and are asking parishioners to chip in whatever they can to reach the goal. Coffee Run Knights will be at the Church exits at all Masses September 29th & 30th to receive donations. The coats are high quality and different sizes for boys and girls. Nationally, the Knights distribute over 12,000 coats annually through this program. Thanks for your support and generosity.
