TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gospel today sees Peter and his colleagues after the Resurrection, returning to Galilee and resuming the family business. They are fishing by night. Although it is true that fish feed by night, the mention of darkness here is more about the human spirit than it is about fishing advice. Modern life keeps darkness effectively under control; much of the world has been glowing radiantly through the night for a century. Yet just as surely as the Risen Christ breaks into Peter's fishing, so does he break into the usual patterns of our own darkness, electric lights notwithstanding. It is Easter, and we are the people of the light.

In our tradition, Evening Prayer, celebrated in monasteries, parishes, cathedrals, and homes everywhere, is a kind of solemn protest against the darkness and its claims, an act of praise for our light bearing God, and a commitment to carrying that light forward. Sunset is a turning point of our day, felt less acutely in an electrified world, but still an effective reminder that one day darkness overtakes us all. Yet our Eastering has taught us in a hundred ways that the victory belongs to the Bearer of Light. Easter summons us to transform our everyday "blackouts," perhaps in a way as simple as a whispered prayer of thanks at evening for the blessings of the day.

In your charity, please pray for all who have gone before us and all the deceased of
St. Mary of the Assumption

Third Sunday of Easter

Saint Paul Catholic Church in Wilmington, Delaware is celebrating its 150th Anniversary. The first celebration is a Mass commemorating the actual ground breaking of our church on May 24, 1869. We are inviting all former and current parishioners, alumni, teachers, staff, priests, deacons, and anyone with a connection to our parish history.

The Mass will be celebrated by Most Reverend Bishop Francis Malooly on Sunday, May 19, 2019 at 10:30am, at Saint Paul Church, 4th and Jackson Street, Wilmington, Delaware. A fellowship gathering with light refreshments will follow immediately after Mass.

2019 Annual Catholic Appeal – “As I HAVE DONE FOR YOU, YOU SHOULD ALSO DO”

This year's Annual Catholic Appeal theme, “As I have done for you, you should also do”, is taken from the Gospel of St. John when he recounts Jesus washing the feet of His Disciples. It is through this role of servant that Jesus gives us a model to follow. But following Christ is no easy task because it means that we must put all others before ourselves.

Thank you to everyone who has made a pledge to this year's diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal. If you have not yet participated, please consider doing so today. Your gift makes a real difference in the lives of thousands of individuals and families who reside within our 12-county diocese. Pledge envelopes are available in the gathering space and at the chapel door entrance pews and can be placed in the offertory basket.

Thank you for your generosity.

To learn more about the Annual Catholic Appeal, visit www.cdow.org/annualcatholicappeal.

Third Sunday of Easter

Did you Know?

The Beautiful Hands of a Priest

We need them in life's early morning,
We need them again at its close;
We feel their warm clasp of true friendship,
We seek them when tasting life's woes.

At the altar each day we behold them,
And the hands of a king on his throne
Are not equal to them in their greatness;
Their dignity stands all alone;

And when we are tempted and wander,
To pathways of shame and of sin,
It's the hand of a priest that will absolve us
Not once, but again and again.

And when we are taking life's partner,
Other hands may prepare us a feast,
But the hand that will bless and unite us
Is the beautiful hand of a priest.

God bless them and keep them all holy,
For the Host which their fingers caress;
When can a poor sinner do better,
Than to ask Him to guide thee and bless?

When the hour of death comes upon us,
May our courage and strength be increased,
By seeing raised over us in blessing
The beautiful hands of a priest.

Third Sunday of Easter

Each year, the fifth grade students from All Saints Catholic School pray for and write to those who are elderly and home bound in Corpus Christi, St. Mary of the Assumption, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Matthew, and Our Lady of Fatima parishes. This maintains a connection with parishioners who are not always able to join us for worship each week. Also, they have the pleasure of hosting a Mass during which the sick and elderly are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. All of those who are sick or elderly are invited to our spring Anointing of the Sick Mass, which will take place on Friday, May 10, 2019 at 11:00am in Corpus Christi. The fifth grade students will be present to greet you, pray with you, and share refreshments following the Mass. Following refreshments, we will also be having our final Dancing Classroom performance to showcase all of the dances that we have learned over the past four months. If you are able to join us and attend the Mass, please RSVP to All Saints Catholic School at 302-995-2231 between the hours of 10:00am to 2:00pm.
