TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Often, when a family keeps vigil around a person who is preparing for death, they may notice three interwoven activities. First, the dying person may become more prayerful and reflective than ever before, reviewing life's journey in gratitude to God, or seeking forgiveness and making amends for wrongs. Second, as death approaches, the need to eat and drink is lessened until even an ice cube brushed against the lips is satisfying. Third, persons who are dying often make plans to give their possessions away, making bequests, handing treasures down, providing for favorite charities.

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving: with these three "pillars" of Lent, we rehearse our death every year in this season, and anticipate the final work we will do in this life. And every year, at the end of our journey, is the joy of Easter and the experience of the victory of Christ over death's darkness and power. Annually, we remind ourselves that the Christian experiences the same power and presence at the end of life's journey: Christ to the rescue and the lasting joy of heaven.

ALMSGIVING, PRAYER, FASTING, AND TEMPTATION

As we begin our season of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, the reading from Deuteronomy reminds us of our duty of almsgiving, that we "set [our offerings] before the Lord, [our] God, [and] shall bow down in [God's] presence" (Deuteronomy 26:10). The reading from Romans refers us to our prayer, reminding us that "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart . . . For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved" (Romans 10:8, 13). These are comforting words, and encourage us to ask God for what we need and to aid us in our prayer. Finally, the Gospel of Luke shows us a fasting Jesus, who was tempted as we are, and who knows what it means to be human. Someone once said that temptation arises when you're tired and weary, and the devil comes along and makes a perfectly reasonable suggestion. Jesus shows us that, with his help, we too can overcome our temptations, reasonable as they may sound.

In your charity, please pray for all who have gone before us and all the deceased of

Consecration to the Holy Family All Masses 3/16-3/17

The Consecration to the Holy Family is a new program sponsored by the Knights of Columbus in an effort to strengthen faith within our parish families. Please see the posters in the gathering space.

At all Masses next weekend, March 16th and 17th each priest will lead us in prayer after the homily. Prayer cards will be distributed by the Knights of Columbus after Masses today and then again next weekend prior to each Mass. Refreshments will be served after masses in gathering space (excluding Sunday 6 pm)).

What Can Each Parish Family Do This Week in Preparation for the Consecration on 3/16-3/17 ?

- 1) Pray each day together as a family
- 2) Fast from consuming something or from a regular activity to discipline our minds and be more focused on God.
- 3) Attend Confession

Thank you for participating and for helping to strengthen faith within all of our families at St. Mary's.

Diocese of Wilmington

The Diocese of Wilmington is presenting a multimedia Lenten series titled, "Holy Boldness:"

A Journey through Lent with Four American Saints," that will be distributed via digital video, radio broadcasts, and podcasts. Written and hosted by Fr. Rich Jasper, Associate Pastor of Saint Ann Church in Wilmington, the four-part series uses the lives and examples of four holy Americans to help individuals and families get the most out of the Season of Lent and prepare spiritually for the celebration of Christ's resurrection at Easter. Each 15 minute presentations will debut on Saturday afternoons at 5:00 p.m. during the first four weeks of Lent on the diocesan YouTube channel, YouTube.com/Diocese of Wilmington. The next morning, the presentation will be included on Catholic Forum on WDEL and available via podcast at cdow.org/Catholic Forum or by searching Catholic Forum on Apple, Spotify or iHeartRadio podcasts. The videos, podcasts, and additional Lenten resources are also available at cdow.org/lent.

Did you Know?

Prayer (Part 4 of 11) Types of Prayer

Adoration and Worship-In prayers of adoration or worship, we exalt the greatness of God, and we acknowledge our dependence on Him in all things. The Mass and the other liturgies of the Church are full of prayers of adoration or worship, such as the Gloria (the Glory to God). Among private prayers, the Act of Faith is a prayer of adoration. In extolling the greatness of God, we also acknowledge our own humility

Petition- Outside of the Mass, prayers of petition are the type of prayer with which we are most familiar. In them, we ask God for things we need—primarily spiritual needs, but physical ones as well. Our prayers of petition should always include a statement of our willingness to accept God's Will, whether He directly answers our prayer or not. The Our Father is a good example of a prayer of petition, and the line "Thy will be done" shows that, in the end, we acknowledge that God's plans for us are more important than what we desire.

Prayers of expiation-in which we express sorrow for our sins, are one form of prayers of petition. In fact, the first form because before we ask for anything, we should acknowledge our sinfulness and ask God for His forgiveness and mercy. The Confiteor or Penitential Rite at the beginning of Mass, and the Agnus Dei (or Lamb of God) before Communion are prayers of expiation, as is the Act of Contrition. Legion of Mary

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT: The Legion of Mary of St. Mary the Assumption Church in Hockessin, DE has recently joined Oremus Communications (OC), an internet radio transmission, with our own program, entitled "Legion of Mary Immaculate Conception Praesidium Divine Mercy Chaplet Program". The Divine Mercy Chaplet prayer which began with Saint Sister Faustina is the core of the program. The program can be heard every Friday at 3pm EST. To listen, simply visit www.oremuscomms.com and click on "listen live". You can also listen to any broadcasts you missed since they are archived and available on www.oremuscomms.com/archives

THANKS TO OUR FRIENDS AT CASAPULLA'S SUB SHOP ELSMERE!

Every month Casapulla's sandwich shop in Wilmington largely discounts sub sandwiches to our Emmanuel Dining Room East Outreach Ministry. The discount allows the volunteers to meet and supply the growing need to feed the hungry in Wilmington.

Please patronize our Outreach supporter- Casapulla's!

We have several items that have been left behind after Masses.

If you are missing gloves, books, jackets, hooded sweatshirts, keys, eye glasses, baseball hats, winter hats.

Please call the parish office (302) 239-7100 ext. 33 or stop in during regular business hours.

~Thank you.

Both of the All Saints Cyber Patriot teams experienced big wins in recent competitions. The Cyber Crusaders team (co-ed team) received First Place in the Cyber Patriot XI 2018-19 Delaware- Middle School Division Competition demonstrating outstanding technical skill, problem solving, and teamwork. The Cyber Chick (all girls team) received Second Place in the Cyber Patriot IX 2018-19 Delaware- Middle School Division Competition demonstrating outstanding technical skill, problem solving a teamwork (see the picture). Congratulations to the Cyber Crusader team members: Bobby, Jameson, Sal, Emily D., Emily H., and Ryan. Great job to the Cyber Chicks team members: Salvacion, Amelia, Amneris, Olivia, Cydney and Kylie.

Join us to see All Saints' production of The Lion King Jr. on Friday, March 29th at 7:00pm and Saturday, March 30th at 6:00pm.

All Saints will also hold an Open House prior to The Lion King Jr. production on Saturday, March 30th from 3:00pm-6:00pm. We are currently enrolling students in grades Pre-K 3 through 8th grade. Tour our buildings, learn more about the good news of All Saints followed by a not to be missed theater performance with all your favorite characters from the Disney classic. Meet the student actors and actresses in costume following the play!

We are so proud of Maksym P. for placing in Third Place in the 7th grade Individual Math League Competition. He will attend the Invitational Meet later in the Spring!

Our Annual Golf Outing, Auction & Dinner will take place on Monday, May 6th at Hartefeld National. This event offers a little something for everyone's interest. Attend the event as a golfer and/or dine with us for dinner and the auction. Visit the All Saints website (www.ascsde.org) for more information! We are also looking for auction donations and individuals/companies interested in sponsoring the event at various levels.
